

WHAT'S ON AT CAMBRIDGE
LIBRARY?
JULY - DECEMBER
2019

cambridgelibrary 9383 8999 OR library@cambridge.wa.gov.au

BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL ON

Town of Cambridge

Image: Julia Dunin Photography

SPECIAL EVENING EVENT

DERVLA MCTIERNAN IN CONVERSATION

Debut novel The Ruin was one of the biggest sellers of 2018— now Detective Cormac Reilly is back in a brand new book. Join us at a very special in conversation event with local author Dervla McTiernan.

Copies of The Scholar will be available for sale thanks to Dymocks Subiaco.

Please arrive at least 10-15 minutes early.

Bookings essential.

Tuesday 30th July

Nerida Clifford Social Space

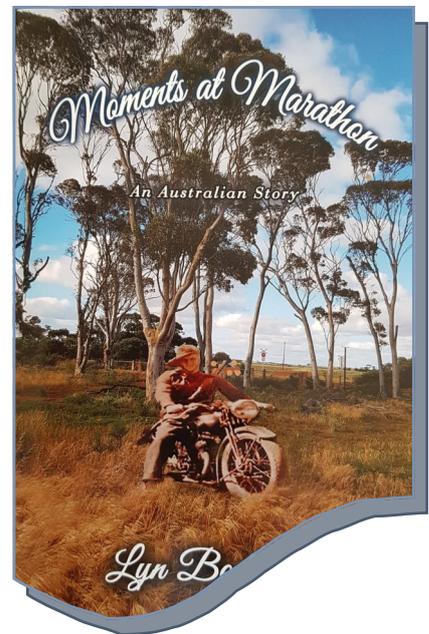

5.30pm—6.30pm

LYN BODYCOAT

MOMENTS AT MARATHON

Laurie Chappel came to Marathon Farm as a boy and returned from the Second World War as a man. Moments at Marathon is his story, as told by his daughter, Lyn Bodycoat. Laurie was 97 when this book went to print. His story captures the era of pioneer farming in Western Australia during the 1930s. Moments at Marathon is Lyn's second book. Family, within a historical context, is the central focus of her writing. Join Lyn, and her publisher, Helen Iles for a talk about the process of writing and publishing family stories.

Book sales and signing will be available at the event

Tuesday 23rd July

Nerida Clifford Social Space

10.30am—11.30am

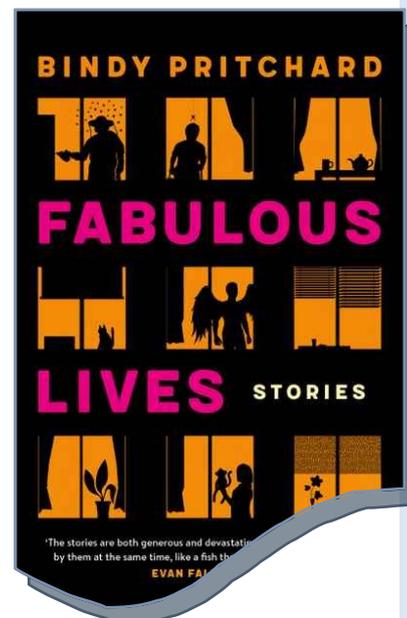

BINDY PRITCHARD

FABULOUS LIVES

Join Perth-based writer, Bindy Pritchard, as she reads from her debut collection of short stories, Fabulous Lives and talks about her writing process.

Bindy's work has previously been published in Westerly, Kill Your Darlings, and Review of Australian Fiction.

Fabulous Lives is published by Margaret River Press. Book sales and signing will be available at the event.

Tuesday 20th August

Nerida Clifford Social Space

10.30am—11.30am

MAUREEN HELEN

BLOGGING AT 80

Author Maureen Helen is a passionate advocate for life-long learning. She is one of a growing band of 'grandmother bloggers', and writes regularly under the tongue-in-cheek title, How to be Eighty. Join us for this special talk all about how to navigate the online world of blogs and social media— no matter what age you may be.

Tuesday 17th September

Nerida Clifford Social Space

10.30am—11.30am

2018 TAG HUNGERFORD AWARD WINNER

HOLDEN SHEPPARD INVISIBLE BOYS

Tuesday 15th October

Nerida Clifford Social Space

10.30am—11.30am

Join award-winning local author Holden Sheppard as he discusses his new book Invisible Boys. This debut novel centres on a group of very different teenage boys growing up gay in Geraldton. Holden will share his very personal impetus for writing the novel, and talk about his own journey from being a manual labourer to becoming a published author and his struggle for self-acceptance as a gay man in light of various challenges growing up.

Book sales and signing available on the day.

EMILY PAULL

WELL-BEHAVED WOMEN

A world champion free diver disappears on a routine swim. An octogenarian gives up her scruples and learns to paint in the nude. A young man from Perth living in Paris at the time of a terrorist attack reassesses the things— and the people— he takes for granted.

Local writer, Emily Paull, presents a talk on her debut collection of short stories, all about the ways women navigate the world and their relationships with others.

Book sales and signing will be available on the day.

Image: Charlotte Guest Photography

Tuesday 26th November

Nerida Clifford Social Space

10.30am—11.30am
