Other notes

- ¹ Under the Acts Amendment (Public Service) Act 1987 s. 31(1)(f) a reference in a written law to the Permanent Head is, unless the contrary intention appears, to be construed as if it had been amended to be a reference to the chief executive officer. This reference was amended under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(5)(a).
- ² Under the Alteration of Statutory Designations Order (No. 3) 2001 a reference in any law to the Department of the Arts is read and construed as a reference to the Department of Culture and the Arts.
- ³ The Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938 was repealed by the State Superannuation Act 2000 s. 39, but its provisions continue to apply to and in relation to certain schemes because of the State Superannuation (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2000 s. 26.
- ⁴ Under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 s. 112(1), a reference in a written law to the Public Service Act 1978 is, unless the contrary intention appears or it is otherwise provided under the Acts Amendment (Public Sector Management) Act 1994, to be construed as if it had been amended to be a reference to the Public Sector Management Act 1994.
- ⁵ Repealed by the Art Gallery Act 1959.
- ⁶ The State Records (Consequential Provisions) Act 2000 Pt. 6 Div. 2 reads as follows:

Division 2 — Transitional provisions

13. Interpretation

- (1) In this Division —
commencement means the commencement of the State Records Act 2000.

- (2) In this Division, unless the contrary intention appears, words and expressions have the same definitions as in the State Records Act 2000.

14. State archives to continue as such

- (1) If immediately before commencement a record was a State archive under the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951, then on commencement the record is to be taken to be a State archive for the purposes of the State Records Act 2000.

- (2) On commencement any record —
- (a) that under subsection (1) is to be taken to be a State archive for the purposes of the State Records Act 2000; and
 - (b) that is in the custody of the Library Board of Western Australia, is to be taken to be in the State archive collection and the Board is to transfer the record to the collection.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not affect section 18.

15. Certain State archives to be restricted access archives

- (1) If immediately before commencement a record was a State archive under the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951 and subject to —

- (a) restrictions on public access imposed under section 32(3) of that Act; or
- (b) restrictions on access imposed under section 32(5) of that Act, then on commencement the record is to be taken to be a restricted access archive for 5 years after commencement.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent an application being made under section 38(3) of the State Records Act 2000 in respect of the restricted access archive.

16. State archives with unrestricted access not to be restricted

If immediately before commencement a record —

- (a) was a State archive under the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951;
- (b) was not under that Act subject to any restrictions as to public access to it; and
- (c) contains information about a person's medical condition or about a person's disability (as defined in the Disability Services Act 1993), then on and after commencement the record is not subject to section 49 of the State Records Act 2000.

17. Provisions that apply until record keeping plan approved

Until a record keeping plan is approved by the Commission in respect of a government organization that is in existence on commencement, sections 30, 31 and 32 (except section 32(1)) of the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951 have effect, despite the repeal of those sections by this Act.

18. Agreements as to State archives

If immediately before commencement an agreement is in force under section 26 of the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951 then on and after commencement —

- (a) the agreement has effect as if the Director were substituted for the Library Board of Western Australia as a party to the agreement;
- (b) if the other party to the agreement is a State organization, the agreement has effect until the Commission approves the record keeping plan of that organization; and
- (c) if the other party to the agreement is not a State organization, the agreement has effect according to its terms.

19. Applications to restrict access to archives not limited

This Division does not limit any right to apply under section 37(2)(b) of the State Records Act 2000 in respect of a State archive that immediately before commencement was a State archive under the Library Board of Western Australia Act 1951.
